

FPH Distinguished Lecture Series

UKHSA: achievements and lessons for health protection in the UK

12 December 2024, 15:30 – 17:00

Agenda

15:30	Kevin Fenton	Welcome and introduction
15:35	Jenny Harries	Presentation: UKHSA – achievements and lessons for health protection in the UK
16:05	Kevin Fenton Jenny Harries	Conversation and overview of a career in health protection, policy and evaluation
16:20	Dominic Mellon	Reflection from FPH Health Protection Committee
16:25	Rachel Johns	Reflection from FPH Health Improvement Committee
16:30	Shivan Thakrar	Reflection from FPH Health Protection (Education & Training) SIG
16:35	All panellists	Q&A and discussion
16:55	Kevin Fenton	Closing remarks

About the FPH Distinguished Lecture Series

The Faculty's Distinguished Lectures, delivered by senior local, national, and global leaders from within and outside the public health profession, aim to discuss the changing nature of public health practice and opportunities to think differently about public health in the 21st century.

Previous sessions have been delivered by Professor Linda Bauld (Chief Social Policy Adviser, Scottish Government), Dr Maria Neira (Director of Environment, Climate Change and Health, WHO), Professor Chris Whitty (Chief Medical Officer, England), and Professor Camara Jones (Past-President, American Public Health Association).

About this session

Our fifth Distinguished Lecture will be delivered by Professor Dame Jenny Harries (Chief Executive, UKHSA) and chaired by the FPH President Professor Kevin Fenton. Jenny Harries and Kevin Fenton will be joined by a panel of experts, including:

- Dominic Mellon, Chair of the FPH Health Protection Committee
- Rachel Johns, Chair of the FPH Health Improvement Committee
- Shivan Thakrar, Co-Chair of the FPH Health Protection \(Education and Training\) SIG

The biographies of all speakers are available here.